The call type definitions are listed below:

Priority 0 (HOT SHOT): An incident involving physical harm or injury to person or property, which is in progress and/or all involved parties are still on scene. (E.g. shooting/stabbing)

Priority 1 (URGENT/PRIORITY): An incident involving physical harm or perceived threat to person(s) or property, which just occurred and/or suspect(s) may still be in the area; where a quick response might aid in apprehension. (E.g. robbery)

Priority 2: An incident warranting a rapid police response, however, poses a minimal threat or no immediate threat, which either is in progress or just occurred. (E.g. Suspicious Person)

Priority 3: Incidents where life or property is not at risk and an immediate police response will not likely prevent further injury, loss of property or adversely affect an investigation. (E.g. DOC/City Ordinance Violation)
